

MacEwan University Centre for Arts & Culture - Edmonton, Alberta

MacEwan University's Centre for Arts and Culture (Allard Hall) project was awarded to Allstar Show Industries. The brief was to supply, install, program, test and commission complete state-of-the-art audio, video, recording, communication and control systems.

The centre includes a proscenium theatre, a black-box theatre and an acoustically correct recital hall, two new world class recording studios which are home to Canada's only university run record label, Bent River Records, thirty four classrooms with projectors and Crestron DigitalMedia, nineteen meeting rooms with 55" displays and Crestron AirMedia, four dance studios, and video walls in common areas for the centre's digital signage.

